Welcome to the Vermont Youth Orchestra Association!

The VYOA is a community that transforms young people's lives through music by fostering a culture where musicians realize their artistic potential, form lifelong friendships, and strive for musical excellence.

In each of our ensembles, our students grow as musicians through professionally-led training in rehearsals, coachings, and performances from many of the finest music educators in the region. The musical and non-musical activities of each ensemble offer students the opportunity to develop team building and leadership skills.

Our students benefit greatly from being a part of the VYOA. Performances by our ensembles are highly valued in our community and have been enjoyed throughout the world. As our region's largest youth orchestra program, we serve not only our students but also contribute to the cultural and educational vitality of our community and serve as a catalyst for initiatives and partnerships that increase the reach and depth of arts education in our region.

The purpose of this handbook is to outline our programs, policies, expectations, and offerings. The success of our programs demands a high level of commitment from each student and their parents or guardians. Please reference this handbook to answer any questions you might have throughout the season.

VYOA Programs

COVID-19 Protocols

Our protocols for COVID-19 are adapted frequently as the CDC and state guidelines shift. Please visit www.vyo.org to see the most up-to-date information. Masks are required inside at all times in the Elley-Long Music Center and all indoor, off-site concerts. Wind and brass musicians are required to use a bell cover when playing. In an effort to control foot traffic in the building, families are discouraged from entering the Elley-Long Music Center during Sunday rehearsals

Scope of program offerings

The VYOA offers instrumental ensemble programs for musicians who play the following instruments: Flute, Oboe, Clarinet, Bassoon, French Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Percussion, Piano, Harp, Violin, Viola, Cello, and Double Bass.

Below is a brief description of each group. For more detailed information and a complete look at each ensemble's rehearsal schedule please visit our website at www.vyo.org.

Instrumental ensembles

Vermont Youth Orchestra

Dr. Mark Apizar, conductor ~ Art DeQuasie, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 12:15 – 3:15 PM at the Elley-Long Music Center (Aug-May)

Established in 1963, the Vermont Youth Orchestra (VYO) draws its members from Vermont, New York, and New Hampshire. As our most advanced orchestra, the VYO performs masterworks of the orchestral canon, interesting lesser-known works, and music written by outstanding contemporary composers. The VYO presents three major concerts each year at Burlington's Flynn Center for the Performing Arts in addition to community concerts and school tour concerts. Its members master a significant amount of music each season in fast-paced and focused rehearsals.

The VYO begins its season with a three-day camp that takes place at the Elley-Long Music Center in early August. The students use this camp as a kick-off to the season, both musically and socially. While the rehearsal schedule is intense, all staff work together to create fun non-musical activities that everyone participates in. Camp attendance is all or nothing and VYO students are expected to attend as it serves a vital role in launching the season. Missing VYO camp counts as one absence for the fall concert cycle.

Musicians are invited to join VYO based on their placement auditions, where they must display a high level of proficiency on their instrument, mature tone production, and strong musicianship skills. VYO members are primarily in grades 10 through 12, joined by a small complement of accomplished 8th and 9th grade musicians. Please see the "Auditions, placements, role assignments, and awards" section of the handbook for more information.

VYO International Tours: The VYO has a proud tradition of touring internationally on a regular basis, with a goal of touring every third year. Previous tours have taken our musicians to China, France, Germany, Czech Republic, Iceland, Spain, and Portugal. Tour plans are announced at least a year in advance to give families time to plan for students' participation. In order to maximize our orchestra students' opportunity to have the touring experience, recent VYO alumni and VYP students in selected grades are given the opportunity to join the VYO for tours.

Vermont Youth Philharmonia

Dr. Yutaka Kono, conductor ~ Art DeQuasie, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 3:45 – 6:15 PM at the Elley-Long Music Center (Aug-April)

Vermont Youth Philharmonia (VYP), our intermediate orchestra, performs three major performances during the concert season including OrchestraPalooza at the Flynn Center. VYP is also featured in annual school tour performances. VYP performs a variety of professional and educational repertoire, including mainstream orchestral pieces, contemporary music, and lighter fare such as film music. For many members, VYP offers them their first experiences playing in a full symphony orchestra and provides the ensemble training that prepares them to advance to the VYO.

VYP students begin their season with a two-day camp that takes place at the Elley-Long Music Center in early August. The students use this camp as a kick-off to the season, both musically and socially. Rehearsals are intense and focused but all staff work together to come up with fun non-musical activities that everyone participates in. VYP students are expected to attend camp, as it serves a vital role in preparing for the fall concert. Camp attendance of all VYP students is expected as it serves a vital role in preparing for the fall concert. Missing both days is counted as one absence for the fall concert cycle; missing one day is counted as a half absence.

VYP membership is offered based on student auditions. It is not uncommon for a student to spend two to four years in VYP prior to earning advancement to VYO. Most VYP members are in grades 7 to 10, with an overall spread of membership from grades 5 through 12. Please see the "Auditions, placements, role assignments, and awards" section of the handbook for more information.

Vermont Youth Strings

Asiat (Ace) Ali, conductor ~ Mia Fritze, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 3:30 PM – 5:45 PM at the Elley-Long Music Center (Aug-April)

Vermont Youth Strings (VYS) provides ensemble experience for string players, with an emphasis on developing ensemble skills that can't be learned in private instruction alone, preparing members for the full orchestra experience offered in VYP. VYS performs two concerts annually including OrchestraPalooza at the Flynn Center and school tours in the spring. VYS performs arrangements of classic and traditional repertoire and original compositions written for younger ensembles.

VYS begins its season with a two-day camp at the Elley-Long Music Center in August. Camp runs 9am to 3pm both days and serves as a kick-off to the VYS season. Camp includes rehearsal time as well as recreational activities that helps everyone to get to know each other. All VYS students are expected to attend this camp. Missing both days is counted as one absence; missing one day is counted as a half absence.

An audition is required for placement into VYS. On average, a student may spend two to four years in VYS prior to earning advancement to VYP. Please see the "Auditions, placements, role assignments, and awards" section of the handbook for more information.

Presto

Kathleen Kono, conductor ~ Myriam Bouti, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM at the Elley-Long Music Center (Six-week sessions in the fall and spring)

Presto provides beginning string students with an introductory ensemble experience. Through their involvement in Presto, students improve their listening skills and learn how to play independent parts, work in a section, and follow a conductor. Students must have at least one year of instruction to participate in Presto. Musicians typically participate in two to four Presto sessions in preparation for membership in VYS.

No audition is required for admission to Presto, though it is useful to check with a student's private or school string teacher to determine if the student is ready to join.

Prelude!

Kathleen Kono, conductor ~ Myriam Bouti, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 12:30pm – 1:30pm at the Elley-Long Music Center (Sept. – April)

Prelude! is a 10-week program for students entering grades 1-5 who are interested in learning to play a string instrument in an ensemble setting. Students may choose from violin, viola, cello, and double bass, but only students in grades 3-5 can select double bass. The cost of tuition includes students' 10-week instrument rental, method book, and musical training.

Da Capo

Ed Owens, conductor ~ Art DeQuasie, manager

Rehearsal: Sundays, 4:00pm – 5:15pm at the Elley-Long Music Center (Sessions in the fall and spring)

Da Capo offers intermediate woodwind & brass players an ensemble enrichment opportunity in a fun & encouraging environment. Sessions are 7 weeks long and meet in the fall and spring. During each session, musicians will prepare concert repertoire specific to winds and brass. Da Capo is intended for students in grades 6 – 9 who have at least 1 year of experience on their instrument.

Additional programs

Lesson Program

Launched in 2018, the Vermont Youth Orchestra Association offers an instrumental lesson program for students interested in learning to play the violin, viola, or cello. Through studying with an experienced teacher, students will improve their technique, learn important repertoire, and gain valuable performance experience. Lessons take place at the Elley-Long Music Center or satellite studio at the First Congregational Church in St. Albans. Please visit www.vyo.org or email Patricia Jancova at patricia@vyo.org for more information.

Endangered Instruments Program

The VYOA's Endangered Instruments Program (EIP) is a subsidized private lesson program encouraging students to play instruments that are typically difficult to recruit for orchestras (string bass, French horn, trombone and bassoon). EIP is open to new students who are not taking private lessons or to VYOA students interested in playing one of these instruments in our orchestras.

Qualifying students receive 24 subsidized lessons annually (September – June) and may participate up to three years. EIP teachers will place students in 30, 45, or 60 minute lessons (only year 1 students are eligible for 30 minute lessons).

Student lesson fees are the following:

30 minutes = $15/lesson

45 minutes = $20/lesson

60 minutes = $25/lesson

To maintain eligibility, students must regularly attend lessons, participate in their school music program, perform an annual check-in with the VYOA audition panel, and accept their placement in a VYOA orchestra as a result of that yearly check-in.

Although the VYOA has a few instruments available for loan to EIP students, new EIP students are responsible for obtaining an instrument, either from their school, via loan, or as a rental.

Participation in the EIP program is in high demand and is based on first-come, first-served. If the teacher and the music director determine that a student is insufficiently dedicated to giving the time and effort needed to master their instrument, after a warning, their participation will be revoked with placement being offered to a waitlisted student.

For more information or to apply for Endangered Instruments Program lessons, please contact our office at 802-655-5030, or send an email to Lesson and Community Programs Manager, Patricia Jancova at patricia@vyo.org.
Lesson Program

School tours

VYS and VYP participate in school tours in the spring. A school tour day typically includes visits to two elementary/middle schools, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. This experience provides additional performance opportunities for the ensembles, enables players to share their music with their peers, and inspires an interest in music in others. School tours involve a one-day absence from school, usually just prior to each ensemble's spring concert. While it is regrettable that some students are unable to participate in their ensemble's school tour day, this does not affect those students' eligibility to perform in concerts, nor is it deducted from their allowed absences. If we are unable to visit schools, the ensembles will create a virtual school tour at Elley-Long Music Center and it will be distributed electronically to schools in the region.

Summer programs

Summer Symphony Camp

(4th week of June)

Summer Symphony Camp is a great way to introduce young musicians to symphony and jazz orchestra. This week-long program is designed to provide a fun and supportive environment for exploring these new avenues of ensemble playing. All students will participate in both orchestras, performing a wide range of musical styles and giving them an opportunity to experiment with different musical genres. Campers make new friends while playing great music and participating in other fun electives. Camp is held at the Elley-Long Music Center during the final week of June.

VYOA Member Expectations and Policies

This section explains the expectations of VYOA student musicians and policies that ensure a safe learning environment and make it possible for our ensembles to perform at an exceptional level.

Commitment to Musical Excellence

As a member of the VYOA, your personal progress and success as a musician and the collective progress and success of your ensemble depend upon your FULL participation. By joining a VYOA ensemble, you make a commitment not only to yourself but also to each of your fellow musicians to do the following:

Participate in rehearsals regularly (in accordance with the attendance policy for your ensemble). The challenging music and intensity of work in our ensemble rehearsals means that each minute of rehearsal time is valuable and important. A missed rehearsal is the equivalent of missing a school class for the entire week! We follow the professional rehearsal standard with members expected to remain in place during rehearsals until dismissal at the break and at rehearsal end.

Sectional coaching rehearsals are of particular importance; please make every effort to attend them and bring as much focus and attention to them as you do to full rehearsals.

Practice your ensemble music on a regular basis between rehearsals and achieve mastery of it well before the concert. The primary purpose of rehearsals is for musicians to grow together as an ensemble and to develop a clear, consistent, and cohesive approach to the music. Do not plan on learning your parts only during rehearsals! If there are issues observed with any student's preparation level, they may be asked on a week's notice to perform certain parts of their ensemble music for their conductor.

Study with a private teacher, if at all possible. Private study is essential for ensuring the continuing development of your musical skills and for meeting the technical challenges of your ensemble music. If you need help finding a teacher please visit the Music Resource Directory on our website (<http://www.vyo.org/music-teacher-directory/>) or speak with your conductor.

Participate in other music activities, especially the school programs that are available to you. One rehearsal per week with us is not enough time to develop your ear, ensemble skills, and musicianship to the fullest. School programs offer not only opportunities for students to develop in these areas but also to develop their leadership skills. We also find that VYOA students who take part in their school ensembles advance more quickly.

Be a good colleague and role model by:

- Being on time for rehearsals: be in your seat, ready to play at least 5 and preferably 10 minutes before the scheduled start with all of your music and relevant equipment (e.g. mutes, pencil, reeds, etc.) within easy reach. Students are expected to arrive no later than 10 minutes prior to the start of rehearsal.
- Engaging fully in rehearsals: pay attention, follow instructions, mark reminders and changes in your parts, and avoid distracting talk/activity. Cell phones and other devices are to be turned off during rehearsals – don't put your conductor or ensemble manager in the position of having to confiscate yours!
- Being supportive of each other – praise good work, offer assistance and encouragement when needed, hold each other to high standards

Read all emails from your Conductor and Operations Staff. Respond to the emails in a timely manner if asked! These emails contain essential information related to your ensemble. Your response may be needed in order for the VYOA to proceed with organizing your season events.

Attendance and Lateness Policy

The VYOA's attendance and lateness policy recognizes that critical school or family events may conflict with rehearsals and that illnesses occur. Compliance with the VYOA school music participation policy may also cause students to miss rehearsals. Once a student has missed their set number of allowed absences, they will be asked to come in and play for their conductor. This is to ensure that they are keeping pace with the rest of the ensemble (this is a practical, not punitive measure designed to maintain our high levels of artistic quality).

- VT Youth Strings members – allowed no more than two absences per semester.
- VT Youth Orchestra & VT Youth Philharmonia members – allowed no more than two absences per rehearsal cycle leading up to a major concert.

Please make use of your allowed absences sparingly and strategically. We recommend that students use their allowed absences for things over which they have no control. These include illness, family emergencies, college visits, mandatory school events, or school music events. We ask that students and their families work together to avoid absences due to things that are under their control. These include family vacations, school work, work shifts, or other competing activities. Making competing commitments means making tough choices, a process that is itself an important learning experience!

Lateness: Rehearsals start on time. Late arrivals are disruptive to the group. Students who are repeatedly late will need to meet with their conductor. Students are expected to arrive at least ten minutes prior to beginning of rehearsal so they can be fully prepared and make it possible for rehearsal to start as scheduled. We ask that parents be mindful of this in planning transportation to rehearsals.

Members must notify their ensemble manager of any upcoming absence from rehearsal. Email is the best way to give notification. All absences, including SAT testing, Music Festivals, or illness, require that the ensemble manager be notified in advance of the absence.

School Music Program Participation Policy

As a key element in the VYOA's partnership with school music programs, all VYOA students in elementary and middle school are required to participate in their school music program if one is offered. Though there is no high school music program participation requirement, VYOA high school musicians are expected to participate in their school music program. At all grade levels, when scheduling conflicts arise between VYOA and school music events (especially performances), participation in those school music events is given precedence, resulting in an excused absence.

Ensemble Folder and Sheet Music Responsibilities

Your ensemble folder and sheet music are the property of VYOA. Losing or damaging your folder will incur a $30 replacement fee. Each lost original (non-photocopied) piece of music may incur a fee of $15 or more, depending on replacement cost or publisher penalties for lost rental materials. Whenever possible, we aim to provide high-quality photocopies to avert these types of problems. All photocopies should be returned following the concert unless students are told otherwise by their ensemble manager. Students are encouraged to write their name in pencil at the top right corner of their music if it has not already been written there prior to music distribution. During rehearsals, students need a pencil with medium to soft black lead (No.2 or softer) and eraser available at all times. VYOA sheet music should never be written upon with pens, markers, or colored pencils!

Student Behavior Expectations

Reasonable standards of behavior and dress are expected while rehearsing, performing, or participating in any event or activity associated with the Vermont Youth Orchestra Association. No set of rules can cover every possible situation. The list below, along with common courtesy and respect, offers a guide to appropriate behavior.

General behavior

1. Demonstrate appropriate, respectful, and safe behavior with VYOA staff, sectional coaches, and fellow students
2. Put trash in the appropriate containers. Please help keep our building clean and well maintained!
3. Students need to demonstrate safe behavior at all times while at the Elley-Long Music Center. Running, rough housing, and using equipment for improper purposes will not be tolerated.
4. During breaks from rehearsal, students should remain inside ELMC or in the area immediately surrounding the building and stay out of the street. Ensemble manager approval is required for students to go beyond this defined area.
5. Everyone must take care to avoid damaging instruments or any property in the building. Members are responsible for their own instruments. Do not leave instruments or bows unattended where they might be damaged accidentally. Do not leave your instrument on your chair during breaks. Instruments should be safely put into cases during breaks or when not needed. All instruments should be insured; most homeowner or renter's insurance policies can include a rider to cover instrument insurance.
6. The use of tobacco, alcohol or any illegal substances is strictly forbidden in and around the Elley-Long Music Center at all times. Also, students are forbidden from vaping or bringing any illegal substances, drug paraphernalia, or weapons of any kind (e.g. knife, firearm) to the Elley-Long Music Center, areas surrounding the Elley-Long Music Center, or any of our concert sites. Violations of this policy are grounds for suspension or expulsion.

Rehearsal etiquette

1. Cell phones and other electronic devices are to be turned off during rehearsals!
2. Restroom usage: Please use the restrooms before the rehearsal or at the break. Students may not leave the rehearsal for any reason (other than for absolute emergencies) while it is in progress. Any issues with bathroom supplies or hygiene should be reported immediately to VYOA staff.
3. Please do not bring food or drink into rehearsal spaces. Water is the only exception. A refillable water bottle provides an excellent means of staying hydrated, avoiding spills, and reducing trash. Please eat your snacks in the hallway or lobby before or after rehearsal or during breaks, and remember to dispose of your trash properly.
4. Listen carefully to instructions from your conductor or manager. Do not talk while your conductor or manager is speaking. When being addressed prior at the end of the rehearsal, stay in your seat and don't start packing up until the announcements have concluded. If you have difficulty hearing the conductor, please let them know immediately.
5. Talk among musicians should be kept to a minimum, and should deal directly with issues related to the music at hand. Musician attentiveness is essential for productive and smooth-running rehearsals.

6. Books, homework, and other off-task materials are not to be brought into the rehearsal area – being attentive and engaged even when you are not playing is an important part of being in an ensemble. You will learn important things about the music and how to improve your skills by observing your colleagues rehearsing.

Bullying and Harassment Policy

The VYOA strives to provide a safe, secure and respectful environment for all students at Elley-Long Music Center and at VYOA-sponsored activities. Bullying has a harmful social, physical, psychological and academic impact on bullies, victims and bystanders. Therefore, the VYOA has defined an explicit policy banning bullying at Elley-Long Music Center and at VYOA-sponsored activities.

Definition

Bullying is deliberate or intentional behavior using words or actions, intended to cause fear, humiliation, intimidation, harm or social exclusion. Bullying may be repeated behavior and involves an imbalance of power. The behavior may be motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, such as, but not limited to: age; national origin; race; ethnicity; religion; gender; gender identity; sexual orientation; physical attributes; physical or mental ability or disability; and social, economic or family status.

Bullying behavior can be:

1. Physical (e.g. assault, hitting or punching, kicking, theft, threatening behavior)
2. Verbal (e.g. threatening or intimidating language, teasing or name-calling, racist remarks)
3. Indirect (e.g. spreading cruel rumors, intimidation through gestures, social exclusion and sending insulting messages or pictures by mobile phone or using the internet – also known as cyber-bullying)

Prohibition

The VYOA prohibits all bullying, whether it is physical; verbal; indirect; cyber-bullying; bullying by proxy; or between students and students, students and adults, or adults and adults. Bullying behavior is prohibited in all VYOA sanctioned events and under VYOA supervision. Suspension or expulsion/termination from the organization are possible consequences for individuals found to have taken part in these behaviors.

Disciplinary Process

In addition to the expectations and policies shown above, the conductor of each orchestra may set additional requirements for rehearsal and concert behavior.

Failure to abide by any of these expectations or policies will be addressed through the following steps:

1. VYOA staff members speak with the student and/or parents concerning the problem.
2. If the problem persists, the Conductor and/or Director of Operations may remove the student from the activity or have the student sit out of one or more activity.
3. Failing a satisfactory resolution, the student may be expelled from the VYOA.
(Note: Tuition is non-refundable.)

Concert Attire

Concert attire helps our students present a professional appearance and ensure a uniform look throughout the ensemble. No one member's outward appearance should distract the audience from everyone's performance.

Vermont Youth Orchestra & Vermont Youth Philharmonia

Students in the above ensembles are required to wear:

- Black button down dress shirt with black suit jacket
- Black dress slacks
- Black tie, black socks, black dress shoes (no other colors, please!)
- Unacceptable: jeans or leggings or athletic shoes

-OR-

Choice of:

- Long black dress (hem must fall below the knee when seated) with black socks or black hosiery and black dress shoes
- Long sleeved all-black shirt (elbow length at minimum) paired with solid black dress slacks; accompanied by black socks or black hosiery and black dress shoes
- Long sleeved all-black shirt (elbow length at minimum) paired with long black skirt (hem must fall below the knee when seated); accompanied by black socks or black hosiery and black dress shoes
- Shoulders must be covered

Please Note: ALL BLACK ITEMS should be solid black without pattern or ornament

A student who fails to wear the appropriate attire for a concert may be withheld from performing in that concert.

Additional information for VYOA families

Tuition

Annual tuition is required for participation in all VYOA programs. Tuition may be paid in cash, check, credit card, or ACH. Payment plans are available, please see your tuition contract for details. Please direct any tuition payment questions to Office Manager, Brea Landberg at brea@vyo.org.

Please note the following important tuition policies:

- For all orchestras and programs, tuition is non-refundable after the first day the ensemble meets.
- Student tuition for the current season must be paid in full in order for the student to receive an audition appointment for the coming season

VYOA Financial Aid Program

The Vermont Youth Orchestra Association awards 10%-15% of tuition revenue in financial aid to students annually. We are committed to ensuring that all students are able to participate. The VYOA offers financial aid support to qualifying families with a combined household income up to $120,000. Application forms for need-based financial assistance are included in the standard registration packet for each of our programs. Each application is reviewed in confidence by an independent committee. For more information, please contact our Executive Director, Rosina Cannizzaro at rosina@vyo.org

Concert admission

Admission is charged for all concerts held at the Elley-Long Music Center unless otherwise noted. Admission costs are always posted at the ticket table in the lobby.

Tickets to VYO concerts and OrchestraPalooza at Spruce Peak Performing Arts Center and the Flynn Center are sold through the venue box office. Please visit vyo.org for ticket information.

Complimentary VYO concert tickets

All VYOA students are encouraged to attend the VYO's Fall, Winter, and Spring concerts. We offer each student (except VYO members) one complimentary ticket to enable them to attend each of these concerts. Orchestra and program managers will inform families of how to access their complimentary ticket. Please note: complimentary tickets are not available the day of the concert at the venue box office. Tickets are limited! If you do not intend to use your ticket, please do not take one.

Complimentary tickets are not available for OrchestraPalooza due to the number of performers involved. This concert is reserved seating.

Concert recordings

Concerts presented by VYOA are video recorded by our media partners, The Media Factory. Links to the videos are sent to families after the concerts and are archived and available at mediafactory.org

Parental support

Supporting your child's VYOA participation: For students to benefit from everything the VYOA offers, we need parents to assist with their children's participation in the following ways:

- Read all emails and materials from VYOA. Respond in a timely manner when requested
- Plan for your family to attend each of your child's VYOA concerts
- Stay informed via the means described in "Communicating with the VYOA" section below
- Ensure prompt arrival at rehearsals and concerts and pick-up at the end.
 - Students are expected to arrive at least 10 minutes prior to the published start time for rehearsals.
 - Students must be picked up no later than 15 minutes following the end of a rehearsal or performance, especially if it is the last event of the day at ELMC.
 - Students whose siblings are in an ensemble whose rehearsals finish later than their own can remain in the building until family pick-up time, although we request that students age 10 and younger not be left unsupervised.
- Support full attendance of your child at all rehearsals and events by avoiding conflicts between family plans and VYOA activities whenever possible
- Support your child's private lessons, practice routine, and participation in school music activities
- Provide a snack for your child for rehearsals
- Introduce people to the VYOA, including parents of prospective students, and help grow our audience base by bringing friends to your child's concerts
- Speak to VYOA staff members regarding any concerns surrounding your child's participation. The sooner we are aware of your concerns, the better chance we have of resolving them successfully.

Volunteering: At various points in each season, the VYOA needs assistance from parent volunteers. Typically, this includes helping at concerts or special events, serving as a chaperone for school tours or community concerts, or helping with a large office mailing. Parents are always welcome to contact the VYOA staff to volunteer or to add their name to a list of volunteers available for a particular task.

Donating: Please consider making a charitable gift to the VYOA to support accessibility to our programs through scholarship support. The VYOA is a 501(c)(3) organization and gifts are tax deductible to the extent of the law.

Recommended equipment/supplies for students

Students are required to have all applicable items with an asterisk (*) available for rehearsals and performances

General

- Medium to soft lead pencil with eraser*
- Folding music stand for tour performances

Electronics tools/smart device apps for everyone

- metronome (either dedicated device or app on phone)
- tuner (either dedicated device or app on phone)
- digital recorder (most smart phones offer this feature)

String players

- extra set of strings*
- mute* (keep in instrument case; always bring to rehearsal area if your music calls for muting)
- rosin*
- rock stop or strap for cellists*
(required at all times)
- end pin cover or rest for bassists*
- spare bow (for emergencies)
- cleaning cloth

Percussionists (one pair of each)

- Snare drum sticks*
- Timpani mallets*
- Yarn mallets*
- Bell/xylophone mallets*

Wind players

- instrument cleaning tools/supplies*
- instrument stand
- extra reeds*
- cork grease
- appropriate screwdrivers for minor repairs and adjustments
- extra pads
- Bell Cover

Brass players

- instrument cleaning tools/supplies
- valve oil*
- slide grease*
- slide lubricant and water bottle (trombones)*
- mutes (as required by repertoire)*
- instrument stand
- spare mouthpiece
- Bell Cover

Communicating with the VYOA

The VYOA staff communicates with students & parents primarily via email. Students and parents receive emails from their Orchestra conductor and ensemble managers on a regular basis regarding rehearsal schedules, performances and other important events. Please be sure to read all emails. The VYOA avoids overloading families with emails but activities in the normal course of the season do require frequent communication. Please keep your ensemble manager updated with any email address changes. If you suspect you are not receiving all VYOA emails, check your junk/spam folder periodically as this is where mass emails are sometimes routed.

Please read the VYOA E-Newsletter. Published on a monthly basis, it contains useful information regarding upcoming events and opportunities. If you have opted out of receiving it in the past, please contact info@vyo.org to resume delivery.

Ensemble managers do not hold regular office hours. Please feel free to call the VYOA office to leave them a voicemail message. Often times the fastest method of communication with staff is via email – see the first page for a list of these email addresses or consult the VYOA website at www.vyo.org

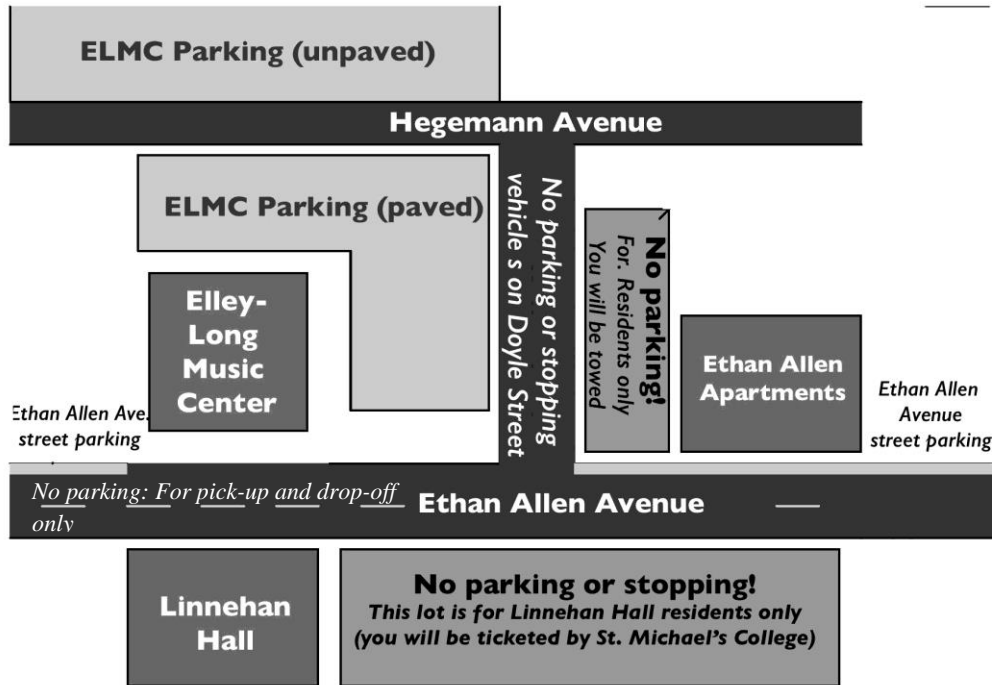

The VYOA website and Social Media: Please visit our website frequently! It contains a great deal of useful information and will help keep you up to date. While we do not rely solely on social media for communicating essential information, it is a useful way to keep current with VYOA events.

“Like” us on Facebook and Instagram @vyoorg.

Weather conditions

The VYOA does not normally cancel concerts or rehearsals in the event of inclement weather. Please use your best judgment when deciding to travel to a VYOA event in bad weather. Please notify your ensemble manager if you decide not to attend an event because of weather conditions. If the VYOA does cancel an event, as much notice as possible will be given out via email, Facebook, and outgoing voicemail messages.

Parking at the Elley-Long Music Center at Saint Michael's College

Park only in the following areas:

- the paved lot directly behind and adjacent to the Music Center
- the grassy field behind the Music Center
- the street along Ethan Allen Ave

Please DO NOT park in any of the following areas:

- the lot adjacent to the apartment building next to the Music Center - you may be towed!
- the lot adjacent to the dorm building (Linnehan Hall) is available on a temporary basis.
- the pull-off area directly in front of the Music Center – this area is needed as drop-off and pick-up area for equipment and for people with mobility restrictions

We encourage students and parents to drive cautiously around the Music Center. Fort Ethan Allen is a busy residential and business area. Please avoid obstructing traffic especially during the busy drop-off/pick-up times. There is limited parking space on Ethan Allen Ave but plenty of space behind the Music Center in our paved and grassy lots. Please park and arrange to meet your child inside the Music Center. Let's be good neighbors to the residents of Fort Ethan Allen!

Music festival sponsorships

The VYOA sponsors participation in the New England Music Festival for VYOA students whose schools do not participate in the festival and for VYOA students who are homeschooled. VYOA students receive information via email in late September/early October on the sponsorship process. Families of participating students are responsible for all expenses and registration fees associated with the festival and are invoiced by the VYOA. Fees vary from year to year and we make every effort to notify families of total costs prior to the festival. For more information on the festival and the audition process, visit www.nemfa.org. Please note that the VYOA cannot sponsor participation in the Vermont All-State Music Festival. Students wishing to audition for All State must sign up through their high school music program (or as a homeschool). Visit www.vmea.org for more information.

Lost and found

A lost and found bin is located in the library at the Music Center. Please pick up misplaced items as soon as possible. Unclaimed items are donated to Goodwill on a regular basis during the season. It is wise to label your music-related property (tuners, rock stops, instrument stands) to ensure they can be recovered easily if left at ELMC.

Auditions, placements, role assignments, and awards

Annual Placement Auditions

Auditions are required for placement in the following ensembles: Vermont Youth Orchestra, Vermont Youth Philharmonia, and Vermont Youth Strings.

When: All auditions are held annually in May/June. Current students must re-audition each year and automatically receive an audition appointment in late March. New students can email auditions@vyo.org to request an audition appointment. When appropriate, auditions can be scheduled outside the normal time frame, though timing or the existing ensemble makeup may delay a student joining an ensemble until later in the season. Mid-year auditions are offered in December only for students who did not audition for placement prior to the start of the season (ensemble assignments do not change over the course of the season, except in cases where there is an organizational need for a student to be reassigned).

Where: All auditions are held at the Elley-Long Music Center at Saint Michael's College.

Cost: There is no cost for any VYOA audition.

Time: Auditions are approximately 10 minutes in duration.

Placement results: Once auditions are completed, all placements are sent out via email to students, students' families, and their teachers in early June. Waitlisted students are notified of their final status by the end of June.

Eligibility: Auditions are open to instrumentalists currently in grades 3-11. Instrumentalists should have at least one year of experience on an orchestral instrument. Woodwind and brass players younger than 6th grade should have at least 2 years of experience on their instrument. Younger students may be permitted to audition if given a recommendation by their private instructor.

To maintain eligibility for VYOA ensemble membership, students in elementary and middle school must concurrently participate in their school music program if one is offered. At all grade levels, when scheduling conflicts arise between VYOA and school music events (especially performances), participation in those school music events is given precedence, resulting in an excused absence.

Requirements: Details of VYOA audition requirements can be found at www.vyo.org/auditions

VYOA Senior Soloist Auditions

Following their May/June regular season audition, all VYOA high school juniors are welcome to audition late spring (preceding their senior year) to perform as an orchestral soloist during the following season. Interested students must participate in a special 15-minute audition, playing the selection they wish to perform as a soloist. No alternate audition day is offered. Senior solo auditions are only available to students who participate in VYOA their entire junior year.

Piano accompaniment is required for this audition. Audition results are typically sent to all participants within the week following these auditions.

Note: Students should be aware that most orchestral music written in the past 90 years is under copyright and often available only via rental from the publisher. In these cases, the VYOA covers the first $250 of the rental or purchase cost. All students planning to participate in these auditions should check in with Dr. Alpizar no later than December 1, 2021 (by emailing mark@vyo.org) to determine if your selected piece is suitable for programming and if it presents significant music rental or purchase costs so that you can make an alternate repertoire choice if necessary. Because of reproduction and broadcast rights costs, videos of performances of works still under copyright cannot be included in the Media Factory broadcasts.

Ensemble placements

The VYOA conducting staff use an evaluation system developed during thousands of auditions over the past two decades and consult closely over the course of auditions to identify and contextualize each student's current level of development, taking into account not only what is observed in the audition, but also the quality of their VYOA ensemble participation in the previous season and the trajectory of growth demonstrated in the year between auditions. The goal is to determine the ensemble placement and role of each student that is developmentally appropriate – where the student will experience suitable levels of challenge and opportunities for growth, camaraderie, and artistic accomplishment.

The following areas are key in determining instrumental ensemble placement:

- Technical level of audition repertoire (especially as it relates to position proficiency in strings)
- Technical facility
- Maturity of tone/projection
- Intonation
- Rhythmic accuracy
- Security in extreme registers
- Quality of audition preparation

Sight reading: The sight-reading portion of the audition serves primarily as a diagnostic exercise to identify elements of music notation a student may have difficulty processing, which is a helpful guide for rehearsal and curriculum planning. Students should not consider sight-reading difficulties as failures nor give these exercises undue weight in their perception of the quality of their performance. Sight reading skills are, however, taken into account when determining section leadership positions, as a well-developed level of musicianship is needed to succeed in a leadership role.

After all factors have been weighed in a student's instrumental audition, we determine the "natural" ensemble placement and role (e.g. 1st or 2nd violin section, section leadership) for which the student has demonstrated their qualification. Not until all auditions for an instrument are complete do we determine the actual placements we can offer students.

For some instruments, placements can be heavily influenced by the number of available positions—flute and clarinet, for example, often have more qualified candidates than available orchestral chairs for those instruments. In these cases, students who are qualified for membership in a particular orchestra may be waitlisted pending the decisions of students who were placed ahead of them.

Orchestra seating and part assignment policies

At VYOA, we strive to promote educational opportunity, access to resources, and community building as key components of our shared pursuit of artistic excellence. The following section's seating and part assignment policies are designed to promote that ideal while giving students meaningful opportunities to develop the skills and characteristics that will help them achieve their current and future musical goals.

VYO Seating and Part Assignment Procedures

VYO string section seating is determined by seating auditions held three times throughout the season. Specific excerpts taken from current performance repertoire will be assigned for seating auditions, all of which will be heard and adjudicated live by expert clinicians during regular rehearsal hours.

Rotating part assignments for the woodwind/brass/percussion players are determined by Dr. Alpizar for the year. Because there are ample opportunities for Dr. Alpizar to hear soloistic playing by nearly every member of the winds/brass/percussion section during regular rehearsal time, they will not have regular seating auditions. Woodwind/brass/percussion players will occasionally have auditions for substantial solos in upcoming repertoire and will be conducted by Dr. Alpizar before/after regular rehearsal hours.

IMPORTANT: VYO musicians who know that they will be absent from rehearsal on a seating audition day are required to submit video recordings of the seating audition excerpts no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Friday before the scheduled audition. If you are not able to attend rehearsal on a seating audition day, notify Art DeQuasie and email him your video recorded excerpts via YouTube link by 5:00 p.m. on the previous Friday. Be certain your video submission is public or unlisted on YouTube - a private video will not be accessible by the VYOA staff. Members who neither attend rehearsal nor submit a recording will be placed at the back of the section.

VYO and VYP Woodwind and Brass Part Doubling

Rather than having fixed section seating, woodwind, brass, and percussion players are often given rotating part assignments for each concert. Players are expected to change seats—according to the part assignments—for each piece in order to maintain the correct positioning of voices within the section. The doubling of wind and brass parts is a common aspect of the youth orchestra experience. Occasionally, the conductor will ask that a part being doubled be momentarily performed by one player for orchestrational, intonation, or ensemble reasons.

VYP, VYS, Presto and Prelude! Seating and Part Assignment Procedures

All VYOA orchestras (except for VYO) use rotational string seating throughout the season. Rotational seating is non-hierarchical and often involves placing more experienced players throughout each section to ensure a strong artistic product and meaningful educational experience. At times, seating may be rotated between rehearsals as part of the educational process, but will be set into concert seating order well in advance of the performance. First violin/second violin assignments typically remain steady throughout the season, unless the addition of new players requires a re-balancing of sections.

VYOA Scholarships and Awards

VYP Friendship Award

The VYP Friendship Award was first awarded in April of 2010. This award was created by and is funded by the parents of Aaron Xue to honor his memory and highlight the importance and value of friendship among young musicians. Aaron was a VYP cellist who died unexpectedly in April of 2009. The award, as determined by VYP members' secret nominations and VYOA staff input, is given to the student who demonstrates exemplary character traits throughout the season while interacting with his/her fellow orchestra members, as shown in generosity with their time and energy, caring, willingness to listen, helpfulness, etc. The recipient is announced every year at the VYP Spring Concert in April.

Hermance Prize and Recital

The Hermance Prize is awarded annually to a Vermont Youth Orchestra senior who has performed as a soloist with a VYOA orchestra during the current concert season. Established in 1990 by the parents and grandfather of pianist Harry Hermance, this $1,000 prize is presented immediately after the Hermance Recital in honor of Harry's commitment to musical excellence. The recipient of the prize is determined by their adjudicated performance at the Hermance Recital, which features performances by each senior soloist playing solo literature written with piano accompaniment or as an unaccompanied solo work. The Hermance Recital takes place in March or April, annually. VYOA students, especially the soloists' VYO colleagues, are strongly encouraged to attend this free event.

Weathers Scholarship

Ann Weathers (1923-2012) was a long-time friend of the VYOA. She shared the Vermont Youth Orchestra Association's interest in helping young students achieve their musical potential. To this end, she established an annual award to assist a VYOA graduating high school senior with the pursuit of a Bachelor's degree in music. The exact amount will depend on the performance of the scholarship's endowment fund which has been $1,500 in recent years. Any high school senior who is currently a VYOA ensemble member and plans to pursue a music degree in the areas of performance, education, or composition is eligible to apply. Applicants must demonstrate: financial need, an enthusiastic commitment toward pursuing a career in music, and a record of past artistic achievement and recognition. Of these criteria, financial need is the first to be considered. The application due date is late April and all senior VYOA members will be notified via email of application requirements and deadlines. Please contact rosina@vyo.org for more information and the application materials.

Additional Services Provided by VYOA

Student Recordings

Students may use the VYOA audio equipment installed at Elley-Long Music Center to create a CD performance recording for college or summer festival applications. The fee for this service is $50/hour for VYOA members. To reserve recording time, schedule an appointment with Director of Operations Art DeQuasie (art@vyo.org).

Instrument Loans

While students are expected to provide their own instrument, we do have a limited number of instruments available for loan to VYOA musicians. These are instruments that are typically not available via rental (e.g. clarinets in A, double French horns.) There is no fee for the loan if the student's VYOA ensemble repertoire requires a related instrument not typically owned by a student musician. Examples include the piccolo for flutists, English Horn for oboists, and E-flat, A, and bass clarinets. In special cases, these instruments can be loaned for short term, non-VYOA use. A fee is charged for these loans. The amount of the loan fee is set according to instrument type and duration of the loan.

Renting the Elley-Long Music Center

Our beautiful facility caters to a variety of events including wedding receptions, music recitals, theater & dance performances, business functions, reunions, retirement parties, etc. Nonprofit rates are available. To schedule a walk-through of the facility, for a rental request form, or for more information, please visit <http://www.vyo.org/about/elley-long/> or contact Brian Johnson, VYOA Facilities Manager at brian@vyo.org.
